

Class Play Raises Money For Seniors

A successful choice, THE MAGIC TOUCH lured the biggest audience ever. The many hours of hard work proved worthwhile on November 29 and 30 when the play was presented. The three-act comedy included many seniors, who learned much under the direction of Miss Carol Sprott. Having earned over 500 dollars for the senior class, members of the cast celebrated with a party.

1. Before the curtain opens, Julie Schaefer and Artie Brickle fix make-up for Mrs. Washington, Beth Holman.
2. After many trying hours, Mr. and Mrs. Braddock, Barney Houser and Lyn Eleazer, perfect Act II.
3. To attract an audience, Lisa Nichols and Anne Morris post signs.

2.