

Hard Work Characterizes '77 Rebel Business Staff

The '77 REBEL business staff worked strenuously selling ads and subscriptions. During the summer and fall the twenty-two members of the staff solicited ads to help defray the cost of the annuals. The first week in November was set aside to sell subscriptions for the REBEL. Business staff members gave up their study halls to count money from the annual and picture sales.

1. Hoping for many orders, Tina Fogle and Jane Rutland put up advertising posters.

2. Junior Cheryl Haigler busily tallies annual sales.

3. Business manager Deborah Carlisle checks the annual files.

