

Competition

Because the race was long and tough, determination was essential. Butterflies symbolizing nervousness indicated that one's best endeavor was necessary. A cooperative spirit welded individuals into a team that struggled for a common goal — victory.

Satisfaction was gained when one completed a task to the best of his ability while representing and serving his school valiantly.

