

Senior Class Sponsors

Money-Raising Projects

Money-raising projects consumed the efforts and time of the senior class. Seniors participated in the annual magazine sale at the beginning of the year and received a percentage of the school's profit. The students combined their various talents to present a successful senior class play, the proceeds of which added to its treasury. In February the class also sponsored the Queen of Heart's program, which netted the seniors over nine hundred dollars. Reaping the benefits of hard work, the seniors enjoyed their class trip to Washington, D.C. in March. After twelve years, the class of '78 graduated in June.
