

Football Creates Excitement for Fans

Many long, hard hours after school, during summer, and on weekends were spent preparing for the demanding football season ahead. Crippled by the loss of several top players, the thirty-one-member '78 Rebel football team found it necessary to acquire endurance through hard practices. The support of the coaches and a number of fans intensified the zeal of the team and led them through a tough, but very exciting season. The Rebels finished the year with an even 5-5-0 record.
