

Softball And Tennis Teams Have Exceptional Seasons

The '77 tennis team improved its state standing considerably. Winning most of their matches netted them an invitation to the tournaments at Hilton Head. One singles and one doubles team progressed to the finals at the tournament.

Practice and hard work enabled the 1977 softball team to obtain a winning season. The Rebelettes, who had lost no players from the previous year, were again able to gain a berth in the playoffs. There they advanced to the regionals. The season ended with a 5-2 record.
