

Lower School Graduations Mark New Beginning

As graduation drew nearer, excitement grew among the sixth graders. The sixth graders eagerly anticipated their becoming members of the Upper School. Mr. Connor presented the diplomas to the sixth grade graduates at their exercises.

Kindergartners presented for their graduation a program based on the theme, "Children Around the World." Among the groups represented were Indians, Pilgrims, Orientals, and Dutch. Graduation for both groups marked a new beginning.

1. Valedictorian Greg Powell addresses his fellow classmates, parents, and visitors.

2. Administrative Assistant Mr. L. R. Connor; Rhude Cherry, class president; Bill Spiers, salutarian and class vice-president; Stephen Haigner, secretary; Lynn Blanton, treasurer; Greg Powell, valedictorian; and Mr. Xennie Weeks await the recessional.
