

Special Interest Clubs Promote Student Participation

Many upper school students were active in special interest clubs this year. These included the Speech and Drama Club and the Science Club.

The Speech and Drama Club put on several productions. In addition, club members took many field trips.

The Science Club planned a field trip to Keowee Toxaway to learn more about atomic energy. Also, guest speakers from Carolina gave informative speeches.

Special-interest clubs encourage and promoted student participation.

