WHA Parents Devote Spare Time To School Activities

This year the inspiring parents of Wade Hampton Academy assisted the students and faculty in their projects. The parents helped with the fruit sale that the band members had to raise money. They also gave their time in the kitchen, both during the Halloween Carnival and during baketball games. The PTSO also obtained much-needed equipments and library has such as picnic tables and library boo for the school.

