

J.V. Rebels Gain Experience Through Hard-Fought Season

During the 1978 football season, the Junior Varsity Rebels gained experience from summer and afternoon practices and many hard-fought games.

The Thursday games gave the J.V.s a chance to execute the many difficult offensive and defensive plays learned at practice. Coaches Steve Tyson, Skeet Smith, and Curt Campbell taught the boys many skills throughout the season. Their season record was 1-9-0.

1. Running-back Burke Fairey follows his blockers to gain yardage.
