

Rebel Yell Tells Inside Story of Events

The latest school news was reported by the editorial staff. The business staff sold ads and distributed the issues to the homerooms. Each member of the editorial staff was assigned various articles to write for each issue. A featured article in every issue was the Upper School's Snoopy column and the Lower School's Woodstock. Other articles pertained to reports on various clubs, polls taken by the students, and the main functions of the school year. Each issue of the Rebel Yell was eagerly anticipated by the W.H.A. students.
