

Student Volunteers Help Days' Activities Run Smoothly

Many students gave their time to help make the days run smoothly for teachers, administration, and students. Library workers assisted the librarian with her daily work. The traffic directors proved to be valuable to students and parents eager to leave school. Office workers ran errands for the secretaries and picked up tardy reports. The canteen workers also provided a vital service to the school.

1.

2.