

Tommy Wannamaker Award Goes to Spencer McDonald

The criteria for the selection of Spencer McDonald as the recipient of the Academy's highest student award, the Tommy Wannamaker Award, were character, dependability, leadership, citizenship, scholarship, and service to school.

Having entered WHA in the seventh grade, Spencer has been active in student activities. He has held membership in the Latin, Spanish, and Key Clubs. He served as president of his class during his junior and senior years and was a member of Student Council. He has also held various homeroom offices. A member of the chorus for six years, Spencer was selected as a member of the boys' quartet his junior and senior years.

Honors bestowed upon this year's recipient included being named Mr. Freshman, Mr. Sophomore, Mr. Junior and Mr. Rebel. In his senior year he was named DAR Good Citizen. Also, he was selected to represent WHA at Boys' State.

Spencer was a member of the J.V. basketball team in the eighth and ninth grades and has been a member of the varsity team his sophomore, junior, and senior years. As a junior he received his team's best-defensive-player award.

In the fall Spencer plans to attend Wofford College.
