The activities included in the school year gave students a chance to show their creativity. Those who participated, individually or acting in a group, portrayed their song through their work in making the event successful. Each concert blended with others producing a sound that would be shared and enjoyed by many.

Father Cope's School for Boys

HELMS' DRIVING SCHOOL