

Graduation Marks an End . . . Yet a Beginning

The graduating class anxiously waited for the day that would end their high school years. A week before graduation, baccalaureate services were held in McAlister Auditorium.

The guest speaker was Reverend Woody Miller. The big day finally came on June 2. Sixty-one seniors proudly marched down the aisle to receive their diplomas from Headmaster Weyland Burns. Commissioner of Agriculture Bryan Patrick was guest speaker. Valedictorian Beth Johnson and Salutatorian Amy Miller addressed the audience.
