

Holdover Performance of Rock-n-Roll Commanded

The Senior Class presented the musical Rock-n-Roll on November 8th and 10th and gave a holdover performance on the 12th. The twenty-seven member cast worked many long hours to prepare for the sell-out performances. The play's setting was in a 1950's pop shop. Its plot concerned football and teenage love. The members of the class profitted not only from the money cleared but also from the experiences gained.
