

Third Grade Visits State House

Third graders started the year with enthusiasm. Among their academic endeavors, they undertook speed test in multiplication and division, read in Panorama and Fiesta, and explored science and social studies as new subjects. They studied South Carolina history second semester and worked on completing scrapbooks of the state. The highlight of the year was a trip to the State House in Columbia. Indian Day was enjoyed by all as they relived the customs and traditions of past days.
