

The 1980 Baseball Team Attains Winning Season

Coach Smith's strenuous practices molded the baseball team into winners. Teamwork was a key factor in the Rebels' game plan. The more experienced players encouraged the younger team members. The players - Harry Culclasure, Bill Spiers, Rich Kohler, Eddie Brickle, Philip Prickett, Robbie Huber, Ed Haigler, Eddie Fogle, Luke Kissam, Turner Perrow, Ralph Faulling, Troy Ott, Dean Staley, Dave Amaker, Dick Thomas, Teddy Andrae, David Cantley, and Clint Padgett - all contributed to the 7-5 winning season. Keller Kissam kept the stats and managers were Andy Brickle and Chris Padgett.

1. Freshman Philip Prickett fires a strike across the plate.

2. Shortstop Eddie Fogle positions himself for a sacrifice bunt.

3. The Rebel players take their defensive stances as Philip Prickett delivers the pitch.

4. Coach Monty Smith relays the steal signal to the base runners.

5. While on deck, David Cantley practices his solid swing.

6. Having reached third, junior Robbie Huber awaits a hit to score another run against the Skyhawks.
