

Pep Club Aids in Promoting Spirit

The Pep Club strove to boost the spirits of the teams and fans. Many hours of hard work were put into making signs and buttons for each game. Cakes were given to the teams to add an extra spirit booster for the big games. Money was earned from the sales at the white elephant booth at the carnival and by the sale of ribbons and buttons. They many hours spent promoting the spirit of the fans and teams were well rewarded.

1. Pep Club's run-through signs help build team spirit.

2. Pep Club president Karen Hudson cheers the Rebels on to victory.

3. Varsity Pep Club members yell faithfully for their team.

1.

2.

3.