

Science and Drama Clubs Provide Activities for Interested Students

The Science and Drama clubs afforded interested students an opportunity to participate in these specialized fields of activity.

Science Club members enjoyed field trips and informative talks by prominent speakers.

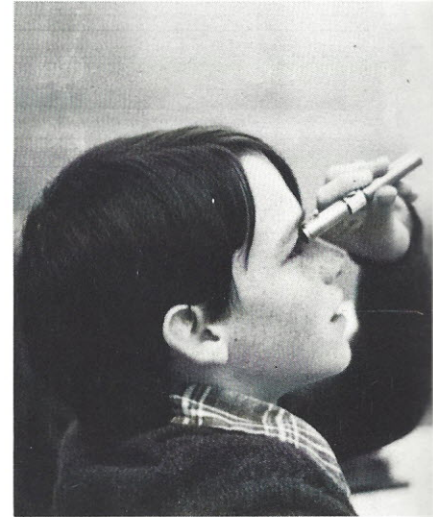

The Senior Drama Club presented its version of the play, The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail. The Junior Drama Club entertained the student body with its presentation at the Thanksgiving assembly.

1.

2.

3.

1. Science Club Officers: Dave Amaker, president; Edward Rast, vice president; Claire Lawton, secretary-treasurer.

2. Science Club members are pictured prior to their departure to go fossil-digging. Kneeling: Bud Shuler, Roy Shelley, Paul Dunnivant. Standing: Danny Fogle, Claire Lawton, Todd Garrick, Joey Rast, Amanda Atwood, Edward Rast, Boyce Lawton, Scott Stevenson, Joseph Sutcliffe.

3. Eighth grader Bud Shuler tries out a scientific instrument at a Science Club meeting.

4. Walking through the woods, Science Club members search for fossils.

4.