TO THE FACULTY

To the Faculty of Walterboro High School belongs the credit of molding our characters to become true men and women. As we journey onward along the pathway of life, the honors that we may receive, and the good we may do in the world can be directly traced back to the teachings of our efficient faculty. The class of '29 entered W. H. S. with minds and character as pliable as sculptor's clay; and through the untiring efforts of the faculty in the years that followed, through their most efficient
