

It is written that the school room called a member of the Class of 1929, and Mary Butler responded. She has rendered a great service to Charleston High School by being its efficient teacher of the first grade.

As I read further it is written that Louise Reynolds has become one of the world's famous poets. Although Shakespeare is classed as best among English and Milton second, Louise has third place. There is no doubt in the minds of the people for determining third place.

The financial world has need of trained men. Behold! James Hiers president of First National Bank, Columbia, S. C. Carl Still is Vice President and Rendell Linder as cashier.

Again, I read of the success of another of your pupils. Your former classmate, Jean Wichman as a world famous artist. She has painted many masterpieces. One of which is "The Voice of The Imps."

Reading further I find that a great center has been centered in St. Louis, Gladys Linder is the great designer; she is now designing a gown for the world-famous soprano, Ella Mae Beach, who is to appear in concert soon.

Eulalie Guess is a great toe dancer. She entertains the whole world with her dancing. She is just leaving the theatre.

As I unroll further I see another great actress. But this time it is a member of Zeigfield's Follies.

Edith Price is one of the most beautiful women in America. She has a profile fit for a queen.

I read further that Irvin Thomas is a millionaire. He has all that a heart can desire, except a wife. Nevertheless, he is a happy old bachelor and has kept away from women.

Kafer Godwin and Eula Lee Hudson have become partners in a great beauty culture establishment. They like their business fine. Kafer is now giving Eula Lee a treatment for the hair.

Can this be true? Listen! The all-American Football team has just become the proud owner of a new captain. That captain is James Ward! The greatest football player known!

Another one of your classmates has achieved a great success—Charles Marvin, the great architect. His plans for the construction of a great tower have been proclaimed perfect!

Mary Lena Gilliland is in Australia. She is working for the interest of the women there. Soon they will have a part in the government. Mary Lena is doing a great work.

Reading further I find that Inez Glover is teaching a new and interesting course in music.

As I read further it is written that America has another great baseball "fan"—a second "Babe Ruth." See Clarence Thomas.

We see Alvin Skardon as one of South Carolina's greatest statesmen.

As I read further it is written that the most perfect formed bathing beauty in South Carolina is Ruth Frank.

And, last, I read that your classmate, Helen Beach, is still single. She is a typical old maid with corkscrew curls. She still pulls daisy petals and repeats, "He loves me; he loves me not; he loves me, etc." Her pastimes are knitting and trying to catch her a husband. She has been successful in the first. But no advancement has ever been made in the latter.
