

WILL

We, the class of 1929, of the Walterboro High School, city of Walterboro, State of South Carolina, the United States of America, having realized that our days at W. H. S. have passed, now dispose of our acquired possessions.

Having reached our first rounds on the ladder of success, our wish is to depart with our present property, in order that we may obtain a more abundant supply in our new field. During our four years of high school life, we have accumulated a vast amount of ambition, knowledge, and other valuables which we bequeath as follows:

SEC. 1. To Walterboro High School we will our undying love, affection and gratitude.

SEC. 2. I, Edward Ackerman, do hereby will and bequeath my passion for writing Billet Doux to Hooper Skardon.

SEC. 3. I, Durell Beach, do hereby will and bequeath my great height and dignity to Vernell Garris, realizing that her need of the said articles is greater than mine.

SEC. 4. Ella Mae Beach, do hereby will and bequeath my baby ways to Polly Lucas, knowing that she will appreciate being loved, petted and teased more than I have.

SEC. 5. I, Helen Beach, do hereby will and bequeath my fiery disposition, and sarcastic ways to Fay Beach. My ability to sing, play, draw and give reading to Pinkney Lucas, to be used in assembly programs next year.

SEC. 6. I, Miles A. Beach, do hereby will and bequeath my Chesterfield manners to Fred Towles.

I, Miles A. Beach, do hereby will my art gallery, containing the pictures of 87 (more or less) attractive girls, to Lucius Fishburne, realizing his love for the beautiful.

SEC. 7. I, Myrtle Beach, do hereby will and bequeath my stately bearing and dignity to Thomas Williams, the said dignity and stateliness being in good condition as only used once.

SEC. 8. I, Jessie Blocker, do hereby will and bequeath to Gwendolyn Herndon, my curly black hair, provided that she take my slenderness with it.

SEC. 9. I, Isadore Bogoslow, do hereby will and bequeath my great height to Austin Sauls, hoping that the relief has not come too late.

SEC. 10. I, Eudelle Bowen, do hereby will and bequeath to Gertrude Marvin my flirtatious manner to be used with discretion and profit.

SEC. 11. I, Elizabeth Boynton, do hereby will and bequeath to C. T. Cummings my marvelous amount of freckles.

SEC. 12. I, Mary Butler, do hereby will and bequeath my dignity to Ethel Marvin, provided that she use it constantly.

SEC. 13. I, Edith Carter, do hereby will and bequeath to Nell Price my reputation for being on time to after-dinner classes.

SEC. 14. I, Robert Breland, do hereby will and bequeath my aptitude for being absent to Catherine Fishburne, provided that she invent better excuses than I have been able to.

SEC. 15. I, Pete Crosbey, do hereby will and bequeath my blonde hair to Keith Jeffries to be used to offset her unusual weight of brain.

SEC. 16. I, Pearl Cohen, do hereby will and bequeath my knowledge of Latin with a microscope to find it, to Maxine Walker.

SEC. 17. I, Cecil Durham do hereby will and bequeath my "I'm in de jail house" song to Adolphe Walters for the entertainment of the future pupils of W. H. S.

SEC. 18. I, Margaret Easterlin, do hereby will and bequeath my love for speed and danger to Sophie McGee, provided that she immediately take out large accident insurance.
