

TO MR. AND MRS. ED COMMINS

Realizing that the teacher's responsibility toward his students is broader than classroom contacts, Coach and Mrs. Commins have become our sincere friends. Because of their interest in the individual, their understanding of student problems, their cooperation in student activities, and their never failing sense of humor, we dedicate "THE LAIR" of 1952.

