

SOPHOMORES . . . CLASS OF '69

The sophomores returned to school in the fall feeling very wise and looking with sophisticated pity upon the lowly freshmen. They realized, however, that even they must work. They were soon involved in classes, car-washes, and class elections. As they assumed their roles as responsible class members, they were looking forward to greater heights and even better achievements.

President, Elliott Savage; Vice-president, Richard Starks; Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Zipperer.
