

Biology Club

Biology Club

Members of the Biology Club have a common interest in the biological sciences. Through this club, students are informed of current developments in biology and are familiarized with related activities and future occupations. At Christmas, the Biology Club aided the U. S. Marine Corps in their annual Toys for Tots drive. They were also active participants in the March of Dimes.