

International Relations Club

International Relations Club

The chief concern of the International Relations Club is to enrich the students knowledge of current events. During the course of the year interesting debates and discussions are held on the latest world affairs. The club sponsors a "Slob-Day" to help raise money for the two scholarships awarded to deserving seniors.

