

Baseball

Even before the basketball season is over, Walterboro High starts its outdoor activities by opening the baseball season. The baseball team practices every afternoon, working long and hard in order to make every season a winning one. Night baseball action takes place twice each week, with each game excelling the other. Through team work and devotion, the Walterboro High baseball team makes itself an important part of the Athletic Association.

