

Vocational School

The Vocational School is an added part to the educational enlightenment of many of the students of Walterboro High. Built this past year, this school offers many courses designed to prepare the student for entrance into the technical and vocational world.

