

Baseball

The baseball season at Walterboro High started even before basketball season was over. The baseball team practiced hard every afternoon toward making the season a winning one. Their games occurred twice a week, with each one a thriller. The Walterboro High baseball team made itself an important part of the Athletic Association through team work and devotion. The Cats were coached by our new coach, Mike Sigman.

