

Vocational School

The growing minds of eager workers need training to fill the jobs provided by the growing industries in our state. Experience and dependability are encouraged or required for assuming well-paid, rewarding jobs.

These requirements are met through the studies at the Colleton Area Vocational Center. Students are offered courses in office occupation, food services, electronics, auto mechanics, farm mechanics, carpentry, masonry, welding, and machine shop.

