

Letting the World in on WHS Activities

The Broadcasting Club is a charter member of the South Carolina Scholastic Broadcasting Association. Its purpose is to promote the field of broadcasting within the school, in order to provide not only another enjoyable activity, but also the impetus to undergo further training in this field.

Its activities include the planning and production of a weekly radio show, which relays to the public the happenings at Walterboro High School. This radio program plays an important role in advancing school media.

Members: Anna Smith, George Moore, Anna Stevens, Sabrina Frasier, Kathleen Manigo, Billy Stanfield, Arthur Whaley, Jennifer Peters, John Edwards, President; Gale Peters, John Sanders, Vice-President; Colette Hodges, Secretary; Jimmie Sue Starks, Susan Crosby, Treasurer; Arue Norris, Anthony Jamison, and Miss Jervis, Sponsor.
