

Searches for the Real Thing

History Club members dig into the "real" thing — Indian artifacts, graveyards, (bottles, that is) early Colonial hardware, broadax hewn beams, and many other things. And, why not a trip to St. Augustine to visit the oldest school house? Enthusiasm is popping over the possible reconstruction of the Temple of Sports (formerly erected by Col. Barnard Elliott who was chosen to read the Declaration of Independence under the Liberty Tree in Charleston in 1776) — Deadline date is 1976!!
