

Vocational School

Learning a trade to pursue a career is vital to many students at Walterboro High School. Their education at the Vocational School affects the growth of industry and economy of the state. The school offers courses in the fields of masonry, machine shop, food service, farm mechanics, carpentry, office occupation, welding, and auto mechanics.

The Vocational School brings to light many hidden and superior talents of students.

