

Ends Basketball Season

The 1972-73 basketball season started with much enthusiasm but no victories. As the season continued, the spirit decreased and many players left the team. Because of their apathy, the team suffered many defeats, but the loyal players that remained had a strong determination. The season ended with a glorious victory.

