

Speed-The Key Factor for Track

The track team displayed a tremendous amount of physical ability this year. The scores of meets exemplified this. Every member of the team spent much of his time in order to form a winning team. Time, practice, determination, and cooperation have been the main factors in achieving this goal.

Each year this sport gains more fans and plays an important role in the school's athletic program.

