

FBLA Tackles the Business World

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization for all students enrolled in business subjects. One of its chief objectives is to develop strong, aggressive leadership so that these future businessmen and women may participate more effectively in the business and community life. Members of FBLA learn how to lead and participate in group discussions, engage in group problem conferences, work effectively with others, and participate in other activities which contribute to the development of desirable leadership qualities.
