

MR. WILLIAM O. DOWDY is principal of the ninth and tenth grade unit serving Walterboro High. As head of the administrative team at Colleton High, Mr. Dowdy faces the problems posed by a student body of nine hundred students. The job is made more difficult because it does not have juniors or seniors to give leadership and provide models of behavior for the sophomores and freshmen.

MRS. ETTA SUMPTER, Colleton High secretary, mimeographs one set of the many quizzes, tests, and forms prepared for the ninth and tenth grade students.

MRS. MARTHA SMALLS checks one of the hundreds of reduced lunch application forms that crossed her desk this year as secretary at Colleton High.
