

Bulldogs Open 73-74 Season With Young Inexperienced Team

The 1973 varsity football squad consisted of 7 seniors, 12 juniors and 17 sophomores and was characterized by a spirited offense and a determined defense which never quit. In spite of a lack of size and experience, the Bulldogs were real contenders in almost all of their games and ended the season with a record of 4 wins and 7 losses.

The Bulldogs started their season with back-to-back triumphs over Beaufort and Burke.

The Bulldogs start off their 73-74 season in shorts, shoes and helmets.

Coach Starks goes through the pre-game ritual of taping ankles.

Casey Price heads for the goal line after an interception in pre-season scrimmage.

Coach Bradley points out to defensive captain, Melvin Williamson, game strategy.

Lester Robinson recovered an Eagle fumble in the end zone to score and Mike Drawdy kicked the extra point which defeated Beaufort 7-6. Walterboro downed Burke 9-7 on a scoring run by Charles Burgess and a safety scored when Payton Crosby and Burgess blocked a punt.