

Walterboro returned home to host the Berkeley Stags and suffered a 40-20 defeat. Charles Burgess scored twice on runs of 3 and 27-yards. The other Bulldog points came from a touchdown pass from Nick Pinckney to Payton Crosby and Drawdy's extra points. The following week the Dogs traveled to Goose Creek to be crushed 35-6 as the defense could not contain the Gator's long and sustained scoring drives. The single Bulldog score came on a 21-yard pass from Pickney to Crosby.

Walterboro ended the season with an impressive 46-6 victory over intra-county rival Ruffin. The Bulldog defense held the Patriots to minus yards rushing as linebackers Melvin Williamson and Casey Price roamed the line of scrimmage. Tackles Dunky Crosby and Lester Robertson, with help from defensive end Raymond Ford, continually sacked the Ruffin passer. Defensive backs Robbie Robertson, Lonnie Stanfield, and Brian McCollum defended the airways.
