

Stevie lays the ball up for two.

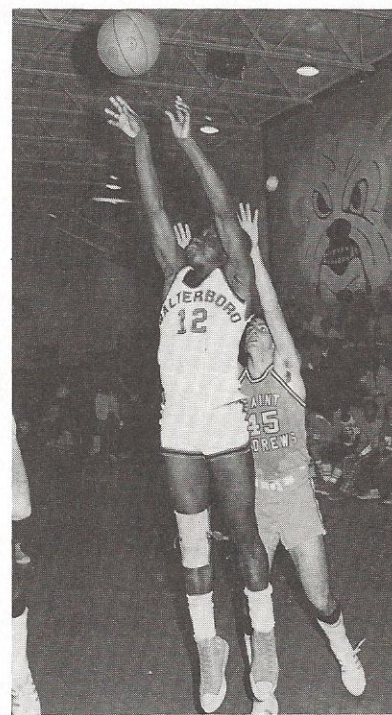

Leroy sets a pick for Muffin.

Doctor goes in for two easy points. (Below) Coach Starks gives Leroy assistance as Pinckney looks on.

Brown up and over.

BoBo fires from the corner

Using their height and jumping abilities, Joe and Leroy provided rebound ability for the running and gunning of playmakers Stevie, Melvin, and "Muffin." Mike Duck, Gilbert Owens, Douglas Maree, and Burt Bazzle added good reserve height, while Leonard Doctor, Howard Taylor, and "BoBo" Stanfield aided with their shooting skills. Turnovers are always a problem with a young team, and the Dogs were guilty of quite a few. But as the season matured, so did the Bulldogs. At times, the Dogs were able to exhibit the skill and pride that belongs to a winning team. Graduation will not hurt the Dogs badly, although the seniors will be missed.
