

J V Boys Win Twenty Straight Ballgames

The Walterboro Boys Junior Varsity finished the regular season with a perfect 20-0 record. Coach Francis Simmons put together a successful team that constantly put pressure on the ball defensively. On offense, Kenny Griffin directed the rebounding strength that kept the young Bulldogs on top. Furman Woodson, Ricky Glover, and Raymond Ford provided the hustle and accurate shooting that crushed opponent after opponent.

In the second round of tournament play, the Bulldogs were handed their lone defeat of the '73-'74 season by the Middleton Junior Varsity Razorbacks.
