

Pride, Practice, Perfection, and Performance Earmark '73-'74 Band

With their appearance at all the football games, the spirit of the crowd increased. Moreover, at the pep rallies, the drums sounded out as the many voices cried on for victory.

This year, the band increased in size from 36 to 50 members. A flag drill team was added. During the basketball season, members of the pep band performed at the games, bringing music, loud roars, and enthusiasm.

At Christmas time, the band presented a special program at Colleton High and as a gift to the community, they performed a concert in the heart of Walterboro.

Because of the band's hard work and talent, they received an excellent rating at the Southern States Marching Festival in Camden and also an excellent rating at the South Carolina Marching Championships in Columbia. In the Solo and Ensemble Festival, five students received superior ratings and twelve received excellent ratings.

Early in the spring, the band was reinstated in the Edisto Conference Band Association and in April, they attended the State Concert Festival in Newberry, South Carolina.

To bring the year to a successful end, the band presented its annual Spring Concert.

The band spends many strenuous hours of practice to prepare for each show.

The band runs through its precision drill during half-time at a WHS game.

The band is performing in its concert formation during halftime.

