

Mimi Maree held down the fifth period Student Director's position and Earline Simmons assisted her.

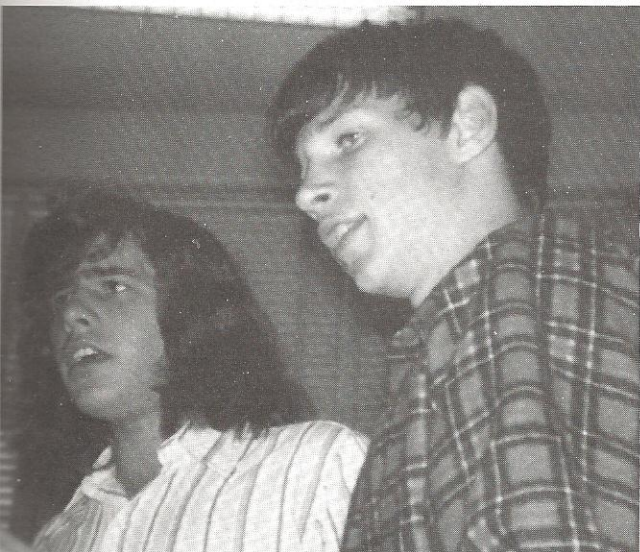

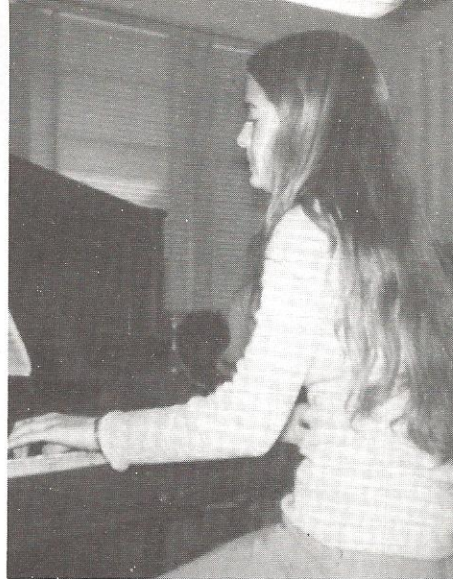

At Colleton High Melvin Williamson was chosen to lead the Colleton chorus with Jayne Mulligan as assistant.

Genny Skardon was chosen by the students of fourth period to serve as Student Director. Lynn Williamson served as her assistant as well as accompanist.

The combined chorus classes' first project was the tree-lighting ceremony at City Hall, December 5.

The Chorus presented its Christmas concert Sunday, December 15. The high school gym was decorated in keeping with the theme "Hallelujah". The music ranged from the cumulative carol, Strangers in the Street to the traditional finale The Hallelujah Chorus. Mr. Moorer, assistant principal at Colleton High School, was the featured soloist singing What Child is This? and Let There be Peace on Earth.

The Spring Concert was a "celebration" of the completion of the new auditorium. The performing chorus featured patriotic music as well as Broadway tunes.

(Above) Elton Culpepper and Bill Burch take time out from their misbehaving to sing. (Bottom) Fifth period class adds rhythm to their song.

(Top) Lynn Williamson fulfills her job as accompanist. (Above) Mrs. Buckner directs the chorus.

