

Through social activities and guest speakers, the FTA members gained information about human relations and the field of education. In charge of the programs, Ann Burch made arrangements for parties and speakers.

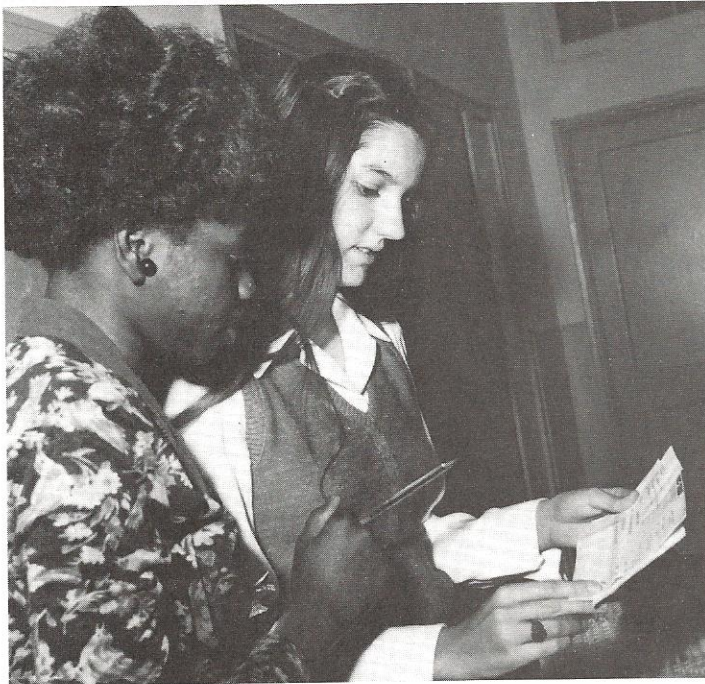

First-year teacher, Richard Starks, recalled humorous experiences in Mrs. Hughes' class when he was a student at WHS. Band director William Young explained the importance of a good background in psychology as preparation for a teaching career.

Each spring the senior members of the FTA are asked to visit a classroom for half a day to help the teacher and to get to know a little about actual teaching. Another project the FTA sponsors each spring is the Talent Contest. Its purpose is to raise money for a $100 scholarship for the most deserving senior who plans to go into teaching.

The FBLA is a national organization for all students enrolled in business subjects. It promotes leadership, scholarship, and efficient productivity in the field of business.

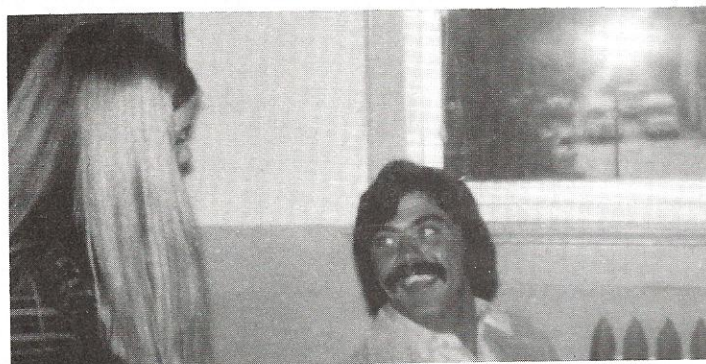

FBLA offers a scholarship to a graduating senior who is planning to further his education in business on the basis of scholarship and financial need. The Club's money-making project this year, the sale of Tom Watt kits, was used to finance the scholarship and to render a worthwhile service to some member or members of the community who are in need financially.

Alvenia Pinckney and Donna Davis discuss the FBLA's Tom Watt bill.

Mrs. Smith confers with Mr. Jones about an upcoming FBLA project.

(Above Left) Mrs. Hughes smiles painfully while listening to a guest speaker. (Above) Peggy Truluck, FTA Secretary, enjoys a cookie at one of the many FTA parties. (Left) Genny Skardon begins to feel the "snow" of guest speaker, Mr. Starks, at the conclusion of the program.