

Pep Club members filled the stands at football games.

Bonnie McLaughlin looks concerned during football game. Lynn Hiers sits next to her.

Pep Club Stirs Spirit

The Pep Club at WHS this year had many members and much enthusiasm. Its members contributed at the pep rallies, football games, and basketball games. However, because of the gas shortage, the Pep Club was able to go to only one out-of-town game. This was the St. Andrews game, nonetheless their spirit was high.