

Powderpuff Football Expands To Include Ninth and Tenth Graders

The traditional powderpuff game was expanded into a tournament this year with the eleventh grade team facing the seniors in the first game. The seniors dumped the juniors 14-0. In the second game the sophomores slipped by the freshmen, 6-0.

In the final round the seniors found the sophomores a difficult foe and slipped by them with one lone touchdown. Coaches Payton Crosby, Oliver Barnes, and Bob Burch felt the heat of battle as play after play went by without a score. Nancy Padgett finally turned on blazing speed and out-ran the sophomore defensive backfield. Sophomore Coach Melvin Williamson lost his outstanding quarterback, Darlene Brown, to basketball practice and could not find the winning combination the day of the game. Sophomore cheerleaders highlighted the half-time show.

The seniors received the yearbook staff's trophy in a pep assembly. Proceeds from the game helped pay annual staff expenses.

Heidi Moyer, Lynn Hiers, and Bonnie Bales cheer from the sidelines.

Sheila slips by sophomore defenders.

Mary Barnes uses the blocking of Myra Breland to get by Gail Elkins.
