

Organizations Honor WHS Students

WANTED by Wofford College: a young man possessing qualities of leadership, scholarship, and good moral values. Each year, Wofford College chooses two outstanding senior males to compete in the annual King Teen contest. The winner will be eligible for an $8,000 college scholarship to further his education at Wofford. This year the candidates were Nathaniel Gant and Payton Crosby. Nathaniel and Payton visited the college campus on separate occasions for an interview by King Teen officials. They were required to take an Otis-Lennon Aptitude Test and were questioned by various college professors.

The Walterboro Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Organization appointed a committee of faculty members to select a senior girl as Miss D.A.R. In order to qualify, a young lady must possess the qualities of patriotism, loyalty, leadership, service, and scholarship. This year's honored winner was Miss Genny Skardon.

Miss DAR, Genny Skardon, celebrates her birthday.

Walterboro High School is proud to have Miss Peggy Middleton as this year's local winner of the Betty Crocker Family Leader of Tomorrow award. This contest is held annually to choose a girl who has the qualities befitting a family leader. To qualify for this award, contestants must take Betty Crocker Search for Leadership in Family Living test.

Along with the honor that comes with this award, the local winner receives a sterling silver inscribed necklace and a chance to enter the state and national competitions. With the national awards, a prize of a $1500 college scholarship is endowed on the winner, to be used at the college of her choice.

Each year Furman University selects four outstanding juniors to represent Walterboro High as Furman scholars. The students are selected on the basis of their scores on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT). In order to be considered, a junior must have an overall score of 1100 or over. This year's Furman scholars are Mary Annette Washington, Rose Mary Kelly, Larry Colleton and Mark Beach. These students attended Furman University as guests on Furman Scholar Day in March.
