

Inspiration! Sweet inspiration!
Dowse thy mops and raise thy bucket;
Man thy brooms ye down-trodden fools!

Burst thy smiles and wipe thy tears —
School has conquered one more year.
Enough of those soybean burgers!

Enough confusion; now it's passed,
Through golden gateways we leave the
Slavery of the Communist conspiracy.

So has ended another year —
The confusion and longing with it.
So has passed our worries, and it's
Good to see it come.

Every day the universe and I are
Closer friends.
And now has passed the past at last —
And brought this to an end.
