

Bullpups Claim Conference Title

The five most valuable members of the JV team are Robbie Hogan, Stuart Crosby, Gary Bodison, Jimmie Ray Simmons, and Victor Radcliff.

Coach John Kaznoski, with considerable aid from assistant coaches Richard Starks and Francis Simmons, led the "Bullpup" team to a conference championship this year.

The JV Bulldogs played eight games this season, losing the first game to Summerville and winning the next seven. The "Bullpups" scored 147 points on the season, twice as many as the opponents' 71 points. Most Valuable Player, quarterback Victor Radcliff, threw five TD passes and ran for four more. Gary Bodison, Most Valuable Back, scored a remarkable 85 points, consisting of 12 touchdowns, seven extra points, and three 2-point conversions. These two players, along with three other players, received their respective awards during half-time ceremonies of the varsity game against Ruffin. Stuart Crosby was Most Valuable Offensive Lineman, Jimmie Ray Simmons was Most Valuable Defensive Back, and Robbie Hogan was voted Most Valuable Defensive Lineman. Two players, Gary Bodison and Jerry Cochran, gained over 700 yards this year.

Victor Radcliff, quarterback, goes around the end with support from Gary Bodison.
